Captains at War. THE TECUBLE IN A MILITARY ORGANIZATION LEADS TO A STREET AFFRAY-HEARING IN THE POLICE

B. Grey, of company B, Capital City Guards, was charged with assaulting Captain Thomas S. Kelly, of company A of the same organization. An article reflecting on the character of Captain Grey was published in last week's Bee, a colored Big BARGAIN. organ published in this city, which was attributed to Kelly by Captain Grey.

Captain Kelly testified that about twenty minutes past eight o'clock yesterday morning, while | SEERSUCKER GINGHAM, Plain and Fancy Stripes, at walking on Q street, between 14th and 15th streets, he was dealt a terrible blow on the back of the head. He turned around and saw Captain Grey with a cane in his hand. Captain Grey continued to strike him with the cane until witness fell to the ground senseless. On cross-examination the witness declined to say whether he had written the Objectionable article referred to. Elizabeth Smith, Kelly's sister-in-law, testified to witnessing the assault and corroborated Captain Kelly's account of it. She said she pursued Grey into a restaurant, where he threatened to strike She followed him until an officer put him un-

Margaret Smith also testified to the assault. The case was then continued until Monday next at the request of the defense.

A Verdict Against the District. This morning, in the Circuit Court, the cases of John L and Jane Sherwood against the District, and Sherwood against same, were concluded by a verdict for plaintiff in the first case for $2,000, and a verdict in the second case for plaintiff for nominal damages and costs. These suits grew out of an accident to Mrs. Sherwood about four years ago, by reason of a well covering, on 7th street south west, giving away, precipitating her to the bottom.
The cases were tried once before, and on going to the General Term the judgment below was reversed. This morning the hability of the District being conceded verdicts were taken by agreement.

EYE AND PALATE.-Mr. Aman has placed in the pretty little court between his lunch counter and dining room Armor's fine copy of Bougureau's Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It leads the list as a truly scientific "Bathing Nymphs," to which reference was made preparation for all blood diseases. in "Art Notes" a few days ago, where it companin "Art Notes" a few days ago, where it companiors the much admired "Nymphs and Satyr." by the same artists. The two pictures attract much attention and win many praises, as they deserve to; for it is not often that two such fine paintings are seen in conjunction on free exhibition. More than any one of his guild in Washington, Mr. Aman seems determined to minister to the esthetic taste of his patrons while they are regaling the inner man, and his efforts in that direction are to be comman, and his efforts in that direction are to be commended. The pictures named are of course the chief attraction of the place, but in addition to these there are many other works of interest and merit, both originals and copies.

Now IN A CONVENT .- Miss Nannte Riggs, the daughter of Mr. Thomas Riggs, of Baltimore, yes-terday took the veil at Mount De Sales convent in that city. She will henceforth be known as Sister Mary Theresa. She has recently been living in this city, with Mrs. Rhett, and is well known in society circles. Her father and stepmother are at present in Europe. Her family are all Episcopalians, and she is a convert. She has been at Mount De Sales for three months.

THE "OWL'S" NEST .- Mr. John R. Young, assistant cierk of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, has recently bought the farm near Gaithersburg, Md., formerly owned by Jeff. Chandler, esq., and removed there with his family. The place was formerly known as "Rollins Rest," but it has just been rechristened the "Owl's Nest."
